

WASHINGTON -- Today, the House of Representatives voted to provide relief to workers across the country whose jobs have been lost or impacted due to trade with the passage of the Trade and Globalization Assistance Act. President Bush has threatened to veto that legislation. At the same time, he is pushing the Congress to approve free trade agreements, like the one he's negotiated for Colombia, that help his friends in the business community but could mean jobs lost at home.

News From:
U.S. Congressman John B. Larson
serving Connecticut's First District
1001 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515
221 Main Street, 2nd Floor
Hartford, CT 06106

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: October 31, 2007

Contact: Emily Barocas /202-225-7295/202-593-1377

WITH TWO VOTES, DEMS STAKE OUT POSITION ON TRADE

WASHINGTON -- Today, the House of Representatives voted to provide relief to workers across the country whose jobs have been lost or impacted due to trade with the passage of the Trade and Globalization Assistance Act. President Bush has threatened to veto that legislation. At the same time, he is pushing the Congress to approve free trade agreements, like the one he